What to expect now?

What happens if my offer is accepted?

If your offer is successful, we will let you know by email and text message in the hours leading up to the scheduled departure time of each train. Your credit card will be charged when we select your offer, and you will be automatically assigned a new seat or room.

What happens if my offer is not accepted?

We will send you an email prior to the scheduled departure of your train to let you know your bid was not accepted. We will contact you 10 minutes prior to the scheduled departure of your train for Business Class and Acela First Class bids, and 3 hours prior for Roomette and Bedroom bids.

Can I modify or cancel my offer(s)?

For upgrades to Business Class or Acela First Class, you can modify or cancel your bid at any time up to 30 minutes before scheduled departure. For upgrades to Roomettes or Bedrooms, you can modify or cancel your bid at any time up to 4 hours before scheduled departure.

* Exception: Auto Train and Cascades

* See Terms and Conditions for additional details and exceptions

Please take some time to read our terms and conditions.

Important information

Amtrak reserves the right to not accept any offer regardless of offer amount or upgrade availability. Availability of upgrades is limited and is made at the sole discretion of Amtrak. Amtrak reserves the right to accept any offer from the time it is submitted to the departure date and time. Upgrades are per seat or room and are in addition to the already purchased ticket fare. Once your offer is accepted, the upgrade amount paid is final and non-refundable. The upgrade does not include any additional promotions. Current promotions on the reservation will not be altered. Amtrak cannot guarantee a specific seat or room number assignment. Your new seat/room will depend on space availability. By participating in BidUp, you consent to receive offer status text messages from Amtrak.
